Total expenses for the 1st year	796,000 Yen

※ After the entrance, applicant would pay the fee (2,500yen) of airport bus.

※ Fees of graduation party and graduation photo album (20,000) are not included

※ The cost of the bank transfer fee needs to be borne by the applicant.

*Note 1 :

Student welfare expenses (insurance fee of 12,300 yen and health checkup fee of 3,700 yen) include overall disaster injury compensation. This insurance is provided for international students to allow them to study abroad with peace of mind

It is compensated in case of accident or injury or in the event of injuring other people or damages incurred in accidents.

The below compensation situations will be accepted.

- 1 Treatment expenses for accident or illness etc will be paid (except dental medical treatment).

Join the "National health insurance" scheme on your own and combined with this insurance, the treatment for medical expenses which students have to pay will be zero.

- 2 If you accidentally damage someone's things with a bicycle (excluding cars and motorbikes) or injure others, the compensation / treatment expenses will be paid.
- 3 Expenses, such as traveling costs in case a relative has to visit from his/her native country in the event of hospitalization are paid. Moreover, transport expenses when someone is transported to his/her native country are paid in the event of grievous injury, serious illness, etc.

Expenses such as travel expenses will be paid for the relatives who fly from their home country to Japan due to your hospitalization etc. Also, in case of major injury or major illness, if you have to go back to your home country, the transportation costs etc will be paid.

However, depending on the type of insurance, there are some disclaimers

"National Health Insurance"

It is a medical insurance program that foreigners who live in Japan for one year or more have to join. 70% of treatment expenses are paid by this insurance, and participants pay the remaining 30%. In the case of foreign students, the insurance costs 22,000 yen for one year.

After entrance, please go to your local Ward office to do the paperwork to join National Health Insurance program

*30% treatment expenses which you pay for might be reimbursed by joining Student welfare expenses. (there are some disclaimers)

VIII. OTHERS

1.Living expenses in Japan

- ① About 80,000 yen (included housing rent) per month are required as average living expenses besides the school tuition.
- ② It is difficult to balance living expenses with part-time jobs and studies with the income from part-time jobs, so you should have sufficient funds prepared.
- ③ Please bring six month dormitory fee and administrative fee at the time of entrance to dormitory (only for those stay in dormitories) of about 250,000 yen.
- ④ It is the best to bring to Japan about 500,000 yen for six month living expenses.

2.Part Time Job

Part time job is prohibited as a rule under the status of "studying abroad "

Therefore, when a foreign student want to use leisure time from study time, an "Permission for Other Activity" of the Immigration Bureau is required.

A part-time job within 28 hours a week is possible after being permitted. (For reference: In case of Osaka, part-time fee is about 100,000 yen per month)

(However, on summer vacation/winter vacation/spring vacation working time will be possible until 8 hours per day)

3.Dormitory

- ① In order to be confident in learning, the school prepare dormitory for students.

Students must live in dormitory at least half a year. In case you want to move out after entering the dormitory, we will not refund the dorm fee.

- ② Dormitory fee :At the entrance, you must pay for a half of year and administrative fee is required.

- ③ If you plan to live with a family in Japan or relative, please inform us in advance.

We might hold a interview the person who you plan to live with. At the same time, that person will submit the documents as a guarantor.
